

Meaford Public Library
COVID-19 update
April 15, 2021

Important Library Service Update
Temporary Halt in Curbside Service until Monday, April 19

The Grey Bruce Health Unit has asked residents of Grey-Bruce to stay home after reporting 73 new COVID-19 cases Wednesday involving hundreds of high-risk close contacts.

The Meaford Public Library will do its part and will be suspending curbside pick up, computer and photocopying services, until Monday, April 19.

Only online library services will be available during this time.

We encourage you to place holds using the online catalogue.

Watch this video on how to place holds.

All virtual programming will remain as scheduled.

Thank you for your understanding and continued support!
