

Meeting rooms in the Meaford Public Library bring together the resources of the library and the activities of the community for educational, cultural, civic, recreational and charitable purposes. Priority use of meeting rooms will be for library and library-related programs and meetings. After those needs are met they will be available to organizations and groups for meetings, education, training, and other community interest activities.

All uses of the available meeting rooms should be in keeping with the spirit of what is acceptable in other parts of the library and should not interfere with the regular operations of the library. In addition, use of meeting rooms shall not be interpreted to constitute endorsement by the Meaford Public Library Board of the policies and beliefs of groups or individuals using the rooms.

General Guidelines:

1. The Meaford Public Library Board:
 - a) will not knowingly permit any individual or group to use its facilities in contravention of the Criminal Code of Canada. Federal, provincial and municipal legislation and regulations must be observed at all times
 - b) authorizes the Chief Executive Officer to manage the use of all meeting rooms in the library, including the right to refuse a request or cancel any booking at their discretion.
2. Library staff will maintain the schedule of meeting room use and bookings and will make every effort to notify scheduled users of the unavailability of a booked meeting room in the case of emergencies.
3. Room bookings will be guided by the following:
 - a) library programs and services, meetings, and events have first priority for scheduling, after which other applications are considered on a first-come, first-served basis
 - b) meeting rooms may only be booked for use during normal library hours. The only exception is the Friends of Meaford Library room which can be booked for after hours use at the discretion of the Library CEO (see Fees section below)
 - c) any municipal resident, 18 years of age or older may request to schedule a meeting room

- d) a "Request for Meeting Room" form (available from library staff) must be completed and submitted to the Library CEO prior to any booking. Information about the intended use of the room, including the names and affiliations of any speakers must be provided on the form.
- e) approval from the CEO is required at the time of booking to sell goods and services in the library.

4. Conditions of Use:

- a) the registered user of the library meeting room will be responsible for any damages incurred to the meeting room, furnishings or equipment in the room and will indemnify the library against all costs associated with such damages
- b) the use of materials or decorations on the walls requires prior approval
- c) non-alcoholic refreshments and select foods may be served in the meeting room at the CEO's discretion
- d) the maximum occupancy of the individual meeting rooms shall be obeyed by all users
- e) all users will agree to hold the library harmless for any loss, damage, liability, costs, and/or expenses that may arise during, or to be caused in any way by such use of the library facility
- f) the registered user agrees to restore the meeting room to its original condition
- g) the registered user agrees to abide by the Meaford Public Library Rules of Conduct
- h) the library encourages all bookings to be made no later than three (3) days/72 hours prior to the intended event. Under exceptional situations, the CEO may approve short notice bookings
- i) the use of media equipment found in the meeting rooms is included in the booking. Additional library equipment must be booked in advance. Applicants must indicate at time of booking what equipment will be needed and whether set-up and tutorial assistance is required
- j) any infraction of the conditions of use shall result in cancellation or revocation of the agreement with the registered user. The library may refuse to rent to that group or individual in the future if serious infractions occur.

5. Fees:

The following definitions shall apply for the purpose of this Policy:
