The Meaford Public Library is pleased to announce that it has recently received a $10,000 contribution for the new library from TD Bank Group. Branch manager Lanna Bycraft noted at the cheque presentation, "We're so proud to support the Meaford Public Library. We recognize how important it is to the community of Meaford and are proud to partner with them." This generous donation brings the total received for the new library to more than $790,000.

Thank you very much to TD Bank Group!
