RE: Consider Local Transit Options this Winter

Meaford, Ontario – November 2, 2022 – The weather is getting colder, and the snow will soon be here to stay. With the winter season comes dreaded winter driving, but if you are looking for a ride, there are local transit options available. Residents in Meaford can travel to Owen Sound, Town of the Blue Mountains and beyond with the Grey Transit Route by calling 226-910-1001 or by visiting <https://greytransitroute.com> to book their ride in advance. Further information on routes and schedules can be found at www.grey.ca/grey-transit-route

Don't forget about Meaford Moves+, our fully accessible, door-to-door transit service that you may be eligible for if you have a disability. Book your ride to work, a social event or professional appointment within the Municipality. For medical appointments only, an 'out of town' ride can be booked to Owen Sound, Thornbury, and Collingwood. For more information, including the program policy and application visit www.meaford.ca/transit or by calling 518-538-1060 extension 1110.
