At the time of application for recognition as a third party advertiser in advance of the October 22, 2018 municipal election in the Municipality of Meaford, it was the intention of SBPR Ratepayers to erect an appreciation sign, recognizing the four members of Municipality of Meaford Council the ratepayers worked with in achieving the paving of the eastern section of Story Book Park Road.

However, before proceeding, the group decided to abandon the creation and installation of the sign, and instead, focus on campaigning for those Councillors with residents of the road, and obtaining permission to locate candidate signage on properties on or adjacent to that section of Story Book Park Road.

As a result, no donations were sought or obtained, no expenses were incurred, no refunds were made and no fund was established.

In conclusion, the group did not operate as a third party advertiser, did not take part in any fundraising and did not function in any way as a third party advertiser.
